

Access

Is the performance space wheelchair accessible for performers?

 YES
 NO

i.e. ramp/level access onto stage and in backstage areas

Is your venue wheelchair accessible?

Audience Wheelchair Notes

B
I

—

<>

Anything wheelchair using audience members should be aware of.

Step free access

 YES
 NO

The venue has no stairs OR all stairs can be bypassed via a ramp, lift or elevator

Does your venue have a hearing loop?

 YES
 NO

Hearing loops are an aid for people who experience hearing difficulties. They are a loop of cable that generates a magnetic field that can be picked up by hearing aids.

Accessible bathroom available for audience use?

 YES
 NO

Separate accessible bathroom for performers?

 YES
 NO

Does the venue have reserved accessible parking?

YES
 NO

Please indicate if your venue has a car park with spaces reserved for people with disability.

Is there on-street parking at your venue which can be used by permit holders?

YES
 NO

Please indicate if there is public parking near your venue that offers accessible parking to people with a permit.

Is there anything about the approach to your venue that you think it would be helpful for people to know?

Many people find information about the outside approach to a venue to be very helpful, regardless of their access requirements. For example, if there are stairs at the front, if there is a high kerb, cobbled road, narrow laneway, the main approach is quite steep, minimal or small signage, or you're located at the top of a steep hill, etc.

Does the venue offer programme information in additional accessible formats?

YES
 NO

i.e. Braille or large print

Are assistance dogs allowed into all parts of the venue?

YES
 NO

What type of seating does the performance space have?

What is the maximum number of wheelchair seats that can be sold per performance?

How many seats must be removed to create adequate space for a customer using a wheelchair?

Is there anything else you think festivals or producers should know about accessibility at your venue?

Online Access Details If you have detailed information about your venue's accessibility and/or access policies (on your own website, for example), please provide a link here.

