About Brava: A Cabaret of Devotions

This show is a cabaret performance that combines songs and personal stories. The performer shares how music has shaped his life, from childhood memories of movie musicals to training as an opera singer and building a career on stage. Along the way, he reflects on artists who inspire him, including well-known performers and important people in his own life. The show moves between storytelling and live singing, with moments of humour, reflection, and emotion. It explores themes of inspiration, perseverance, identity, and the impact of music and performance.

This is a show for all ages, but recommended for ages 13 and over.

Run Time

60 minutes with no intermission
