Access Measures

Relaxed Performance

Relaxed performances are open to everyone, but the environment has been specifically adapted for those who are neurodivergent and may experience sensory sensitivities, folks with communication or learning disabilities, and people who would benefit from a more relaxed environment.

The 4:00PM performance on 9 July, 2026 will be a relaxed performance.

About Little Eden

Gabriel wakes up in the middle of the night trapped in the house of his deceased grandfather. Stumbling through a series of waking nightmares, he picks away at the walls of his psyche in search for a sense of authenticity. A startlingly hopeful exploration of loss and grief, Little Eden is a journey through the mind of a man defined by his past and threatened by his future.

Run Time

Fifty (50) minutes with no intermission

Content Warnings and Advisories

Please be advised that Little Eden contains themes of suicide, grief, death, and mental illness.

Cast and Characters

CHARLIE FORD plays the role of GABRIEL

Set

There is a small, blow-up mattress in the centre of the stage with white bedsheets, and a pillow with a teddy bear sitting on it. On either side of the stage are piles of cardboard boxes draped in clear plastic. There are newspapers all over the floor around the boxes. On the stage-left side, there is a lamp next to the bed, as well as a file box on top of the boxes. There are small books laying face-down around the set.

Costumes

Gabriel is wearing a blue and white checkered, button-up pajama top, with dark blue pajama bottoms. His hair is brown, and slicked back. The performer is wearing pale face make-up that is highlighted with sparkly blue powder.
