Access Measures

Relaxed Performance

Relaxed performances are open to everyone, but the environment has been specifically adapted for those who are neurodivergent and may experience sensory sensitivities, folks with communication or learning disabilities, and people who would benefit from a more relaxed environment.

The 3pm performance on June 9th will be a relaxed performance.

About 2076: A Sketch Comedy Show

This is a sketch comedy musical that contains several short scenes that are, for the vast majority of the show, separate from each other in context. In the show, two characters express concerns about what the future will be. They then happen to find a time machine and use it to take brief looks at various possible futures. The show concludes with them returning to their own time, where they present what they've learned from their journey.

Run Time

55 minutes with no intermission.

Content Warnings and Advisories

Please be advised that 2076: A Sketch Comedy Show includes mature language, content eluding to sexual acts, content eluding to violence, live vocals with recorded music, minimal flashing lights, loud and/or high pitched sounds.

Cast and Characters

The cast will perform a variety of roles throughout the show. These roles will be made apparent and given context in each scene that they are brought up in.

The cast for 2076: A Sketch Comedy Show is as follows:

Anya Banning
Tristan Lipton
Julia Lobo
Johnny McGroarty
Cameron Whittle
Ryan Williams

Set

The set is currently being finalized for the show and this section will be updated closer to the performance dates.

For now, the set is planned to be fairly minimal, with non-descript blocks used as seats or platforms.

Costumes

The costumes are currently being finalized for the show and this section will be updated closer to the performance dates.

For now, the costumes are planned to be colorful and vibrant, to evoke a feeling of 'retro futurism', as seen in media like "Back to the Future part II" or "The Jetsons".
