

ACCESSIBILITY RIDER – HUMAN INSTRUMENTS

Event: MixTones Presents: Human Instruments

Venue: Barons Court Theatre, 28a Comeragh Road, London W14 9HR

Dates: 5 July, 23 August, 24 August 2026

Time: See listing for performance times

Duration: Approx. 60 minutes, no interval

Venue & Physical Access

Barons Court Theatre is a small studio theatre located in the basement of a pub. Access to the performance space is via a flight of stairs and there is currently no step-free access to the theatre itself.

Seating is raked and fixed, with audience on three sides of a small thrust stage.

Toilet facilities are available within the venue; however, accessible toilet provision is limited. For full details or specific access questions, please contact the venue directly.

Assistance dogs are welcome.

Performance & Environment

This is a live a cappella performance featuring multiple singers.

- There are no instruments used at any point
- There is no strobe lighting or flashing effects
- The show includes live vocal percussion (beatboxing) and dynamic volume levels typical of live music, which may be loud at times
- Performers may move around the performance space

Audience members are welcome to leave and re-enter the space quietly if needed.

Content Notes

The performance includes a range of contemporary music. Some songs contain mild adult language.

Seating & Audience Experience

All audience members will be seated. Due to the intimate nature of the space, performers and audience are in close proximity.

There is no obligation to stay for the full duration of the performance.

Additional Information

- Performers use microphones
- There is no hearing loop currently available
- Unfortunately, we are not able to provide BSL interpretation for this performance

Getting to the Venue

The theatre is located near Barons Court and West Kensington stations. Please note that step-free access to the theatre space itself is not available due to its basement location.
