

Hazel is a young girl who is convinced she is broken. She can't get along with the other kids at school, can't seem to enjoy "normal" kid activities, and feels numb inside. Her mother and teachers are confounded by her strange behaviour... and apparently so are the gremlins who live under her bed. Her Gremlins Grom and Grox have called all the Gremlins from the Gremlin realm to meet to help them figure out how to get Hazel back on track so they can spook her and avoid getting their bones munched by the Gremlin Council.
