

DADS Synopsis

Using audience interaction, stand-up comedy, games and storytelling, DADS makes space for the sometimes complicated, sometimes hilarious, and always impactful relationships we have with the men who made us. With each show different from the next, this playful piece wrestles with whether honour and honesty can truly go hand in hand.

Brought to you by award-winning playwright Taylor Trowbridge and award-winning director Dylan Trowbridge, this show also features a new guest comedian at each performance sharing a set about their own father – including Jacob Balshin, Ornab Momin, Jon Bennett and Courtney Gilmour!
