Alternative Text / Image Description

Promotional still from The Vine That Withers set inside Waraq Enab Café. Fatma Naguib stands in the foreground, looking off to the side with a tense, reflective expression. Behind her on the far left, Beatriz Camargo and Gilles Hammoud stand near a green plant wall, watching with concern. On the right front, Hani Yakan stands apart, also looking away. The warm café setting, hanging lights, wood tables, and plant wall create an intimate atmosphere while the actors' body language suggests emotional tension and distance.
