Andrew Silverwood: Love Thy Neighbour

Synopsis

In 2025 Andrew Silverwood moved house to the perfect rich person neighbourhood, the local dog park, Bent park, was home to the Bent Dogs Community Facebook group and his neighbour was an old Italian man with a habit of breaking into his house to steal from his olive tree, when a neighbour suggested he join a pilates gym, Andrew flipped and went on a year long journey across Canada, the US and eventually travelled to occupied Palestine for a wedding between a two people that he cannot prove are not spies.

This deeply autobiographical show looks at how the faith of those around Andrew shaped him into the adult he now is and how one conversation with a priest in Jerusalem can change years of blind belief. It asks all of us what it would take to be a martyr and how long it is ok to stand idly by.

It's told in Silverwood's signature storytelling style through using humour to focus in on the most intricate of stories.
