

Andrew Silverwood: Love Thy Neighbour. A show written inside a wedding in a war zone.

Award winning British comedian Andrew Silverwood brings Love Thy Neighbour to Toronto—a compelling new storytelling show that transforms a neighbourly dispute into a global exploration of conflict, culture, and connection.

A former Catholic schoolboy with Jewish roots, UK-born and now based in Perth (Australia), Silverwood draws on more than fifteen years of international fringe touring in a deeply personal new work that asks “what makes a sin a sin?” — and what it really means to be a good person?

This deeply personal and autobiographical story begins in suburban Australia in early 2025 before unfolding across Canada, the United States, and culminating at a Muslim wedding in occupied Palestine, where Silverwood finds himself navigating faith, identity, family, and the realities of our complicity in the complex diplomatic situation there.

Previously described by the Adelaide Advertiser as “a must-see,” Silverwood’s latest work is provocative, funny, and built to spark conversation long after the final laugh.
