

Disengaged reveals a comically raw look at relationships, love and the institution of marriage through the eyes of a cynical, yet hopeless romantic. Follow Efthimios Nasiopoulos' hilariously painful account of his two failed wedding engagements as he relives memories of writing his first love letter at 8 years old, disastrous proposals, even more disastrous breakups, one stolen cat and the lessons learned.