

Spilt Ink Productions was founded in 2026 by Mayurathan Thevathas, an engineer, avid writer and local Torontonionian, who is passionate about telling stories that evoke deep human emotions. Spilt Ink Productions produces content in multiple formats including film, theatre, spoken word, prose, poetry and other artistic disciplines. Spilt Ink Productions is strongly committed to showcasing unique stories from diverse voices with emphasis on local Canadian talent. Our aim is to leave a lasting impact on our audience, fostering conversations that promote understanding and unity.
