A dramatic new music-theatre piece, featuring powerful vocals and movement. Fourteen songs tell the story of Ishmael and the wreck of the Pequod. Staged by Dora-award winning director Adam Paolozza (Bad New Days Theatre).

Ubu Opera is dedicated to combining opera and physical theatre. Ubu Opera's first concert production of Ubu Roy was presented in 2018, as part of the inaugural season of Wild Geese Chamber Music in Hamilton, Ontario. A brief animated trailer for Ubu Roy was included in the 2022 Lift-Off Online film festival. Songs for Moby Dick, first performed in concert in 2023, will be Ubu Opera's first fully-staged production.
