 - “Various dance animals \(including of course, Dance Capybara\) form a tribe, tell their stories, and under the guidance of Dance Tiger \(director/choreographer Robin Henderson\), express themselves and their love for Toronto's culture through dance. Dance Shetland Pony \(Michael MacEachern\) and Dance Peacock \(Leighton Williams\) intrigue but I personally am curious about Dance Octopus \(Kevin Vidal\).”

 - “Robin Henderson’s Dance Animal series started out in Montreal but has since become a major comedy hit everywhere from Just for Laughs to the Centaur Theatre. Now Toronto gets its own tribe of dancing animals, from the raccoon to the capybara, played by a who's who of Toronto sketch comedy vets."

 - "This is a cheeky, sexy, funny show. The amazing choreography – fairly well-timed with each other, and very well-timed with the music – was a stand out to me."
 - "I've never seen a show quite like Dance Animal: Toronto before. I might not recommend it for everyone: if you hate to laugh, would rather die than groove in your seat, can't watch absolutely sexy dance performances, and loathe endearing jabs at Toronto culture, you may want to skip it. If you aren't a humourless monster, Dance Animal: Toronto might be right for you. I would gladly watch it again!"
