

WE THE MEN Synopsis

There is one disenfranchised group that is being ignored!

Who, you may ask? MEN, of course!

In SoulO Theatre's WE THE MEN, director Tracey Erin Smith leads 10 women-identified actors in drag to explore the struggles men face, from a satirical angle, based on real conversations with real men. In a sight specific location (formerly known as The Cadillac Lounge) audiences are invited in for an all-access pass to the man-cave.

You will laugh out loud at ridiculous things men say and do, and be deeply moved by the difficult truths they also face.
