

Company Biography

Roles

Fae Cajuste	Playwrighter, Songwriter, Director
Vicente Alvarez	Production Manager
Jemima Charles	Actor&singer: Ella
Ty Clarke	Assistant Production manager, Actor& Dancer
Jamie Floyd	Actor:
Jayleen Mc Carty	Actor&singer:
Louna Janin	Actor: Ensemble, Gossiping women, Rose
Alessandro Leone	Actor:
Dee Edouard Williams	Actor: Gossiping women 2, Ensemble, Louis wife
Dondré Pryce-Lalla	Film editor, Marketting, Actor
Francisco Miorin	Marketing, Actor
Anthony Aka Anghui	Music Director

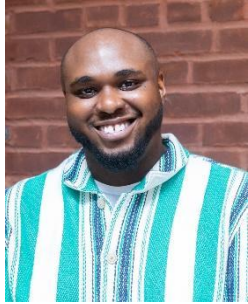

Jemima Charles is a performer whose artistic journey began at a young age in her church community. She first discovered her love for music as a child in the kids' choir, a passion she continues to nurture today as a singer in her church's girls' group. Alongside her singing, she found joy in dancing and acting, often expressing her faith through praise dance and performances that bring stories to life. Her creative path is deeply connected to her strong Christian faith, which inspires her to keep growing as an artist. Believing that "with God all things are possible," she approaches every opportunity to perform as a chance to uplift, inspire, and connect with others

Ty Clarke

Ty Clarke is a Montreal based actor with a passion for working with other artists to tell stories. His love for arts began during his training at Dawson college's professional theatre program where he learned to improve his craft and implement them in the program's productions. Upon graduating, he was fortunate to connect with many artists in the Montreal community by performing in the Fringe festival. He enjoys obtaining new skills such as learning different singing genres, dancing and fight choreographies. Ty hopes to inspire others to follow their passion and encourages others to always appreciate life through art. Creating a theatre that brings together a community that is welcoming has always been his ultimate goal.

Jamie Floyd is a talented actor based in Montreal, recognized for his role as Hannibal Barca in a recent production. He has starred in several local productions and has earned recognition for his performances over the past five years. Jamie began acting in high school and has resumed his passion for the stage, receiving training in film and tv, improv, musical theatre, and movement. In addition to performing, Jamie is a versatile professional having worked as a journalist, marketer, and astrologer, which has only enriched his storytelling skills. Known for his creative spirit and love for storytelling. He explores themes of self-healing and personal growth through his art, aiming to create thought-provoking performances that inspire and engage audiences.

Jayleen est plongée dans la musique depuis son enfance. Après avoir intégrée une chorale à l'âge de 8 ans, elle évolue en solo ou dans différentes formations et projets musicaux. En 2017, après quelques singles en solo ou en featuring, elle se lance dans sa première aventure, sous le nom de scène de V'Nuss : un EP 5 titres qu'elle définit à l'époque comme une carte de visite vocale et artistique car cet EP mêle ses influences de bases (le reggae, le hip hop) et ses goûts du moment (Pop Rock, rock). Suite à ce premier projet, elle décide donc de se pencher sur un opus plus abouti, son premier album "So Far From The Mirror", qui sort en Novembre 2018 (toujours sous le nom de scène V'Nuss) il est résolument Folk Rock avec des sonorités de country-pop ou de blues avec un clin d'œil particulier au rock des années 70 porté par sa voix chaude très Soul. Après un bel accueil du public réservé à l'album et une belle année à promouvoir celui-ci sur scène, l'envie de proposer un autre projet et d'explorer d'autres horizons avec le public se fait à nouveau ressentir. Ce nouveau projet s'accompagne d'un changement de direction artistique et d'identité scénique pour s'orienter vers un style musical RockSoul épicée sous le nom de JAYLEEN Mc CARTY. Cette nouvelle aventure s'est d'abord concrétisée par un premier single "My Pride" sortie en juin 2020. Un clin d'œil au rnb/hip-hop

As a professional singer, dancer and actor, Safiya has performed in celebrated Montréal productions: "Generation Motown", "The Best of Broadway", "Esquire Show Bar", "The Big Bazar", and at the Segal Centre's production of "Guys and Dolls". Safiya was a featured dancer in the Netflix series "Madame CJ Walker" and "Christmas Chronicles 2". Safiya had the opportunity to be a rehearsal dance director for "The Queen's Ball"; "A Bridgerton Experience". Safiya's most recent theatrical and stage performances have been in the upcoming film "En Scene" and the stage production of "Harlem of the North." Safiya is currently working on a Gospel Legacy project with her partner Martin Laniel, about the life of her great great grandmother who wrote a gospel song in 1946.

Dondré Pryce-Lalla is a Montreal-based actor, puppeteer and filmmaker. He has his DEC in Communications, Media and Studio Arts at Vanier College and is currently completing his BFA degree in Acting for the Theatre Specialization at Concordia University. He is one of the performers of 'Harlem of the North', assuming the roles of various ensemble characters such as Flirting Boy, Club Owner, etc. His skills include Prop & Puppet Building, Photography, Hand Sewing, Filmmaking, Video Editing, Hosting and Sound Recording.

Frangelica is a theatre director, playwright and songwriter dedicated to preserving and sharing black narratives from Canada. Her Haitian American heritage deeply influences her work. She explores themes of identity, aspirations, and finding community in the focus of stories involving black and POC environments as in her theatrical creation Harlem of the North. She creates theater that bridges history with modern perspectives in hopes of creating space for voices from places left unheard.

- Anthony Aka-Anghui is a multi-instrumentalist from Ivory Coast who started to make his name on the Canadian scenes by stepping into jam sessions and playing alongside DJs. His skills for improvisation and his musicality led him to perform in unique events such as Montreal's & Toronto's Jazz Fest, Mural Festival, Nike Air Force 40th anniversary and many more!

