

CUSP. SYNOPSIS

In a small cottage in Northern Ontario, 20-year-old Sophie and her half-brother Ivan have built a quiet world of their own. They spend their days with a small circle of people: a couple of high school friends, Mikhail and Eli; Myhra, a free loader who seems to live in the house secretly, and a mysterious cousin, Yasmine, visiting them for the summer. As they are slowly preparing for Sophie's 21st Birthday, their peace is disturbed by the arrival of the older brother, Xander, with his enchanting new wife, Lina. Lina quickly wins over the heart of Ivan, and, what is even worse, seems to draw the gaze of Mikhail, Sophie's lifelong crush. Sophie and Lina find themselves torn between jealousy and growing friendship. Lina offers Sophie to carefully find out if Sophie's feelings towards Mikhail are reciprocated. But their conversation doesn't go at all the way Lina expected, and she ends up kissing Mikhail. The tension in the house rises when, at Sophie's Birthday party, Xander announces that he is planning on selling the cottage. The characters have to face the fact that the world they have created may never be the same, and the time will come soon when they will have to say their goodbyes.
