Image Description: A hand-drawn black ink illustration on an off-white or beige background, functioning as a minimalist promotional flyer for a theater production.

In the center, a large rectangular building is drawn with a bold cross symbol on its facade, resembling a hospital. Two stick figures stand on the roof of the building. To the left of the building, two stick figures stand under an umbrella next to a streetlamp, while two other figures stand nearby with exclamation marks over their heads. To the right of the hospital, two small stick figures are accompanied by the handwritten sound effects "heck!" and "weewoo!", with an abstract, squiggly horizon line running underneath the scene. A stylized signature is visible in the bottom right corner.
