

25

2 actors, 12 characters, 45 minutes.

25 follows twelve characters through their mid-twenties as they find themselves confronted with life changing situations, because 25 is not only an age, it is a crossroads. A crossroads between childhood and parenthood, school and career, growing old and staying young. 25 puts things into perspective at a time when, for better or for worse, changes are happening.