

Animated!

Your favourite objects. Brought to life by our best improvisers.

Watch the adventure unfold as your favourite objects are brought to life in this hilarious improvised show presented by Bad Dog Theatre Company. Inspired by the objects YOU want to see, our cast of professional players joins forces with up-and-coming teen improvisers to pay homage to the world of Pixar in this improvised animated movie. No two shows are ever the same, and every show is a great time.

Ever wondered what your forks and knives do when you leave the kitchen? What a towel and beach ball say when you're not around? How many adventures the tools in your garage are having when you're not looking? With big characters, engaging stories, and comedy for kids AND adults -let's face it parents, you laughed more at Shrek than your kids did- this show is sure to entertain everyone.

Directed by Nicole Passmore (Bad Dog Theatre Company, Second City HouseCo), this show features Kirsten Rasmussen (Second City Mainstage, This Hour Has 22 Minutes), Kris Siddiqi (Baroness Von Sketch Show, Canadian Comedy Award winner for Best Male Improviser), Leigh Cameron (Second City Mainstage, Epic Bedtime), Christian Smith (Toronto Sketchfest 2017 "Best of the Fest" winner, Second City HouseCo), Liz Johnston (Bad Dog Theatre Company, The Show Show) and a stellar up-and-coming cast drawn from Bad Dog's Youth Academy.

Playing at the George Ignatieff Theatre in partnership with the Toronto Fringe KidsFest.
