Press Release

Shadowlands is a new play by Edmonton creator-performer, Savanna Harvey. It is part of the Canadian Association of Fringe Festivals (CAFF) tour 2017 and will be presented in the Toronto, Winnipeg, Calgary, Edmonton, and Vancouver Fringes.

Cells in a petri dish. A scientist. A ghost. A laboratory mouse. We are on a journey to see what can't be seen. We are on a quest to find truth in the dark.

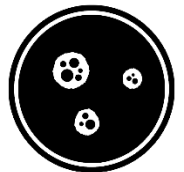

The Scientist works in her lab. She experiments with microscopic organisms and gathers scientific observations leading her to the truth. Then one day, her studies are interrupted by a ghost. In a reality determined by evidence, how can The Scientist deny the proof before her very eyes?

Encounter an expedition down the twilight pathways of darkness and shadow, consciousness and existence, truth and perception. There may be light at the end of the tunnel, but how do we figure out what the light is?

Staged in total darkness, Shadowlands is a unique visual experience. This striking aesthetic plays on what you can see, what you can't see...and what you think you can see...
