

The Preposterous Predicament of Polly Peel (Act 1)

SYNOPSIS

'... Polly Peel (Act 1)' explores a family grappling with death through the eyes and imagination of a biology-obsessed eleven-year-old girl. Originally inspired by acclaimed Canadian painter Paul Peel's 'The Young Biologist', an early incarnation was presented in 2016 at the AGO as part of The Musical Stage Company's 'Reframed'.

Featuring a moving story, a funny and poignant musical score, and some of Canada's top musical theatre talent, '... Polly Peel (Act 1)' showcases a rare in-development look at a new Canadian musical. Frogs. Family. Forgiveness. RIBBIT!

Winner of the 2018 Paul O'Sullivan Prize for Musical Theatre.
