

Critically Acclaimed Superhero Movie

Synopsis

Critically Acclaimed Superhero Movie is an improvised Superhero Movie based on audience suggestions. A such, you can imagine how hard it is to summarize! The show runs using what we like to call "beat-prov" - essentially we know where we're going, we just don't know how we'll get there.

Every Superhero Movie of course needs to begin with a hero and her origin story! From there we see our hero present day and all the ways she helps keep her city safe....but of course then we need a villain to try and destroy it all. Once we have a hero, a villain, and the all powerful item he's after our story can unfold...literally because we don't know where it's heading. Our show isn't just "4 the boyz" so obviously there's a love interest, a charming side-kick and even a celebrity guest. Who? You tell us!

By the end of the show the world is safe and most of the loose ends are tied up...usually...sometimes. Maybe it's all a set-up for the sequel!?
