

Show Synopsis

Ride an imaginary canoe to end up around the fire for some music that will get everyone giggling, followed by a great story plus a couple of juggling tricks during this high-energy interaction. TiBert demonstrates the ruine-babine (jaw harp), his favourite instrument, and shares his Franco-Manitoban Métis culture as it was done in the good old days. This show which shares the joie de vivre with everyone is designed to entertain young people who like to dance and laugh!
