

Ishi & Bishi – Company

Michael Bennett Leroux and Holly Greene have been working in children's theatre since 2004. They have both worked for companies like Mad Science and Dufflebag Theatre and have been working creatively on their own projects for 6 years. They love performing for young audiences and making people laugh. Although this isn't their first time at the Toronto Fringe (last year they co-wrote and directed High Park Noir), they are very excited to be a part of KIDSFEST for the first time.

Holly Greene – Creator/Performer

Holly has been doing theatre for young audiences for 14 years. She is originally from Montreal, Quebec, where she studied Professional Theatre at Dawson College. She is a Second City Improv Program and Conservatory Graduate. Her favorite time of year is fall, because of Halloween. Holly's adventures in children's theatre include travels to amazing places like Malaysia, Singapore, Haida Gwaii and a shared office with real astronauts at the Kennedy Space Center in Florida.

Michael Bennett Leroux – Creator/Performer

Michael graduated from The Toronto Film School and completed the Second City Toronto Conservatory program. Michael has been entertaining children across the continent for over a decade. He loves the cinema and has produced and starred in two independent feature films. Michael also enjoys jogging, MMA, making art pieces with broken records, playing the guitar and has written over 50 songs.
