

A Small Part of the Whole Story

TORONTO -- Can grief be funny? How do you explain what a person means to you? Why would an adult man let his mom buy his underwear? Written and performed by Chris Graham (TEDx) and directed by Graham Isador (She's Not Special, The Beaverton) A Small Part of the Whole Story combines humor, live music, and storytelling to explore loss, love, and memory. The storytelling show runs as part of the Toronto Fringe this July.

A Small Part of the Whole Story

Written and performed by Chris Graham
Composition and live music by Sandro Pehar
Direction and Dramaturgy by Graham Isador
Stage Management by Rahaf Fasheh

Dates:

Wed	July	6	20:15
Sat	July	9	18:15
Tue	July	12	16:15
Wed	July	13	20:15
Thu	July	14	21:30
Sat	July	16	15:30
Sun	July	17	15:45

All shows are performed at the Robert Gill Theatre, 214 College St, Toronto, ON M5T 2Z9. Ticket information is available on the Toronto Fringe Website.

TORONTO
FRINGE
FESTIVAL

TellPeople