

Graham Clark's Not Here

Written, directed and starring Graham Clark

Graham Clark returns to the Toronto Fringe with his brand new show Graham Clark's Not Here.

The show started as an off the cuff remark about how it would be easier to do the fringes if you didn't have to be there in person. Could you send along a video of your face and attach it to someone else's body?

Could it work?

We'll see.

The show will see the comedian's take on death and the very real case of not being here.

Graham Clark is a 3 time Canadian Comedy Award winner, two time Patron's Pick Winner and one time Great Canadian Laugh off Winner....so the show is a comedy.

It is a bizarre comedy experiment and the audience will see if it works in real time.
