The Magnificent Terrific Top-Notch Superb Show

A variety show goes awry when a dog-like visitor from another planet interrupts via satellite. Is it possible that the show's hosts have more in mind for you than just your entertainment? This interactive comedy explores communication, expectation and realizing one's own potential.

Michael Bennett Leroux and Holly Greene have been working in children's theatre since 2004. They have both worked for Mad Science and Dufflebag Theatre and other children's theatre companies. They both completed the Second City Conservatory program and have been working together creatively on their own projects for 6 years.
