

Alex Dallas is back with her brand new show, Horseface. As a stalwart of the Fringe she has earned the name, “Queen of the Fringe” as she has performed in more than 150 Fringes worldwide, starting in Edinburgh in 1982.

She performed with her comedy troupe, Sensible Footwear at the Toronto Fringe since 1990 and at Fringes across Canada, the USA and Australia. She has also brought her solo shows, Goddess, Nymphomania and Drama Queen to Toronto, Los Angeles and Adelaide. Goddess and Drama Queen have been aired on CBC Radio and Bravo TV to much acclaim.

But now she's back with Horseface!

A show written in response to the #Me Too Movement, Horseface is a journey in comedy and storytelling of a woman's innocuous encounter with a manspreader on a train and what ensues.

Does she assault him ? Is she pushed over the edge? And what does Jane Fonda have to do with it?

A comedic and poignant story of a woman's life from the 70's to the present and all her #Me Too moments along the way, some hilarious and some less so.

The show premiered in May at the Orlando Fringe to rave reviews and won Best Show in the Red Venue from the Sponsors!

“veteran international Fringe performer Alex Dallas returns with Horseface, a topical solo dramedy for the #MeToo era that manages to wring big laughs”

“This is the kind of wellconstructed, intimate monologue that used to be the lifeblood of the Fringe Festival” Orlando Weekly 2019

“Dallas is an engaging, polished storyteller” Orlando Sentinel 2019

Alex is the voice of Queen Victoria in Assassin's Creed Syndicate, the voice of a new Audio book coming out this year and appears in TV thriller, Departure, later to be seen on NBC. A versatile actress and voice actor, her one woman shows always entertain and provoke.

Alex was nominated for Best Supporting Actor by My Entertainment World in 2019 for her role as Mrs. Dilber in A Christmas Carol, produced by Soupcan Theatre.

You can follow Horseface on Facebook @ Horseface by Alex Dallas

Twitter @AlexDallas58

Instagram @ thealexdallas

For an Interview : cell: 647 702 4252

Email: dallasalex93@yahoo.ca