

Next Step Productions presents
The Last Party
A New Musical by Steven Gallagher and Nicky Phillips

The Last Party* is a touching and funny new musical about making the most of your life with whatever time you have left.

Dylan is getting married. Dylan is dying. In the hours leading up to his wedding, Dylan reflects on his life as his partner and sister attempt to grant his last wish: to plan and attend his own memorial. The Last Party, directed by Tracey Flye, is a touching and funny new musical that celebrates living life while we're here.

The Last Party is the first musical collaboration between award winning playwright Steven Gallagher and New York based award winning composer Nicky Phillips. The entire musical was developed and written over Skype. The writer of the Fringe and Next Stage hit's Stealing Sam, and Memorial, The Last Party marks Gallagher's first musical entry at the Fringe.

The Last Party also marks the Toronto return of Los Angeles actor Michael Lomenda of Jersey Boys (Toronto, Broadway, and the Clint Eastwood Directed Feature Film) who stars as Dylan. Jessica Sherman (Rumpspringa Break!) and Jeremy Legat (West End, London UK) round out the cast, and the musical is Directed by Tracey Flye (War Horse, Once)
