*The most passionate can be the most toxic.
The deepest pain can be the sweetest pleasure.*

I FEEL YOU is a dance-theatre investigation into the complexity of human connection. With a combination of choreographed and experimentally-devised movement, performers connect through love & passion, control & power, desire & guilt, jealousy & addiction.

"Most of our connections seem to be 'virtual'," states Creator Melissa Major. "I wanted to explore real-life, real-time connections. They can be scary, they can be sublime, they're the kind of connections that can't be closed with a click."

With a cast of six female dancer-performers, guided by Major's vision and molded by Rauw's bold movement, I FEEL YOU draws the audience into a world where human interaction is raw and robust, sometimes funny, sometimes poignant, but always powerful and profound.

From the company behind EVERYDAY OPPRESSIONS ("NNNN - A visually stunning contemporary dance piece...expertly executed!" - Now Magazine), INFINITUM ("NNNN - Critic's Pick! The depiction of the universe's unlimited differentiation DAZZLES." - Now Magazine) and the Internationally Acclaimed UNICORN HORNS ("NNNNN - A MUST see." - Now Magazine), I FEEL YOU is provocative exploration of human connection at a time when we need it most.
