

The most passionate can be the most toxic. The deepest pain can be the sweetest pleasure. A dance-theatre investigation into the complexity of human connection using a combination of choreographed and experimentally devised movement, performers connect through love & passion, control & power, desire & guilt, jealousy & addiction. Set to a soundtrack of music and poetry, I FEEL YOU tells its story through physicality to convey the intricacies of human connection.