

For immediate release: April 30th, 2019

It's time to face the musical comedy.

July 3rd- 14th at the Toronto Fringe Festival

After performing to sold out crowds at the Edinburgh Fringe, real-life couple and Second City veterans Jordan Armstrong (One Night Only/Dora Award Nominee) and Kevin Matviw (JFL42, Sunday Night Live) are bringing the dark and delightful music of Death Ray Cabaret home for their Toronto Fringe debut.

As regular headliners of Toronto Sketch Fest and the Big City Improv Festival, Death Ray Cabaret keeps audiences coming back for more with catchy melodies and quick-witted lyrics. "Our music explores everything from true stories about being adopted, to an audience inspired R&B song." Kevin says. "Plus, our relationship allows us to playfully mess with each other on stage. Jordan has an entire song that disses me, but there's love there... I think."

The funniest thing since sliced bread, Death Ray Cabaret's high brow goofiness is written and performed by Matviw (The Carnegie Hall Show, Second City Tourco) and Armstrong (Ballet Creole, first female Musical Director - Second City Toronto Mainstage) and directed by Shari Hollett, acclaimed director of award winning theatre and comedy (Second City Detroit, nightkitchen theatre, Tarragon Theatre).

"Death Ray Cabaret were a DELIGHT. Our bellies hurt from laughing" - Comedy Central UK

"Poetic & melodic, arrowheads fleck'd with the Flight of the Conchords" - Mumble Comedy UK
