

• MAYHEM AT MISKATONIC: A BURLESQUE MYSTERY GAME.

Answer the Call of Clithulhu and be teased, titillated, and a touch terrified by our Lovecraft-inspired Burlesque Mystery Game! Set in the 1920s, this 90-minute show is an immersive tale of unleashed demons and unbuckled britches. Audience members are invited to choose the direction of the plot to save our souls or plunge the world into demonic darkness.... No pressure.

Pointed Cap Playhouse is thrilled to present Mayhem at Miskatonic: A Burlesque Mystery Game, debuting at the 2019 Toronto Fringe Festival with 10 shows July 3rd - 14th at The Painted Lady.

Pointed Cap Playhouse is a collaborative theatre & burlesque company led by Sly Pereira and St. Stella, focused on innovative, immersive, interactive productions exploring roles of gender, stereotypes, and interpretation of classic tropes using theatre, comedy, music & striptease.

The Mayhem at Miskatonic Team includes:
Dora Award Nominee Sebastian Marziali
Burlesque Hall of Fame performer St. Stella

Written by: Nick Cassidy & Ash Cassidy

From some of the creative team that brought you sold-out "Lysistrata" at Toronto Fringe 2017 and sold-out "Carmilla" at Toronto Fringe 2018.

Praise for "Lysistrata":

"Between the slapstick and strip teases, the power of love, laughter, and freedom are fearlessly affirmed. This is, in all seriousness, the best burlesque I have seen in Toronto." -Mooney on Theatre

NNNNN- Now Magazine

Nominated for a My Entertainment World Critics Pick award, Best Ensemble.

Praise for "Carmilla":

"a hyper fun, super sexy, intriguingly staged queer romp that had me laughing hard and whooping up a storm at the quality dancing, burlesque, and physical theatre constantly whirling all around me."
- Mooney On Theatre
