

Rowan meets the girl of his dreams... right before his untimely death. Now he's wound up in purgatory where he's given a choice: move on or relive his life. The world premiere of Grey Spaces, an original Canadian musical, is happening this Fringe Festival season at Theatre Passe Muraille.

Written by Fynn Cuthbert (Snapshots, The Good Guys) and Brittany Miranda (Musical Stage Company's Musical Moments), directed by Saphire Demitro (First Date, Cabaret, The Wizard of Oz) and produced in collaboration with the Dora Award-nominated Bowtie Productions (Next to Normal, Tick... Tick... Boom!), Grey Spaces is a contemporary pop musical that explores the fatal errors of chasing perfectionism, and how the pressures to succeed in life can cause us to miss the beauty in the ordinary.

As runner up for the 2026 Adams Prize for Musical Theatre and a cast and crew stacked with talent, this is not a musical you want to miss this summer!
