

Headed by prolific Dora Award-winning Toronto playwright Kat Sandler, Theatre Brouhaha creates theatre for the 'HBO Generation': young professionals who seek fast, funny, dark entertainment that will give them something to talk about at the bar afterwards. Founded in 2010, Brouhaha has played to sold out houses in Toronto, Ottawa, Kingston, Kitchener-Waterloo, and Montreal. Their hit shows include 'LOVESEXMONEY,' New Play Contest and Best of Fringe winner 'Help Yourself,' 'Rock,' Fringe smash hit 'We Are The Bomb' at the Paddock Tavern, 'Sucker,' 'Retreat,' 'Delicacy,' Best of Fringe winner 'Punch Up,' and 'Liver.' 'Mustard' was presented as part of Tarragon's 2016 season was nominated for six Dora Awards, winning Outstanding New Play (Kat Sandler), Outstanding Performance - Male (Anand Rajaram) and her latest hit 'Bang Bang' was presented at the Factory Theatre and is nominated for Outstanding New Play in the 2018 Dora Awards.