

Ryan G. Hinds' #KanderAndEbb is a whirlwind tour through the music of Broadway songwriters John Kander and Fred Ebb, set against entertaining and touching stories from the perspective of a lifelong fan who managed to get semi-close to the legendary writers' fabled world.

#KanderAndEbb is where showtunes, celebrity gossip, & kinky sex meet! Hinds tells real-life stories of Kander & Ebb's unique writing process; the secret sexiness behind one of their most wholesome shows; why you should almost always meet your heroes, his working with Liza Minnelli, a chance encounter at Kiss of the Spider Woman that changed his life, and what it is that make Kander & Ebb's music so special; drenched in "showbiz" and featuring digs against Andrew Lloyd Webber and Sondheim, and featuring a fabulous 4 piece band, the show is a hilarious, personal and sincere tribute, leaving audiences with a new appreciation for the material.

Including both classic and lesser-heard songs from Tony and Oscar-winning musicals Chicago, Cabaret, Kiss of the Spider Woman, The Rink, Woman of the Year, Steel Pier, Funny Lady, and Flora Red the Menace
