About *The Cards We're Dealt

The Cards We're Dealt is a standup and storytelling show premiering at the, where comedians and storytellers take the stage each building a set around a single tarot card and its meaning. From The Lovers to The Tower, each show transforms archetypal themes such as love, growth, chaos and transformation into personal and sharply funny storytelling.

The production features a rotating lineup of comics and storytellers from Toronto's comedy and theatre scenes, each bringing their own distinct voice to the deck. No two shows are the same, with a shifting mix of performers and tarot cards creating a unique experience at every performance.
