

FOODIE & BOBO
"TV Magic, Babes"

Foodie & Bobo is all the best parts of your favourite sitcoms mashed together. Sisters and frenemies, Betty and Fran, couldn't look more different, but they have more in common than meets the eye. Sure, Fran is fat and laidback, and Betty is uptight and outgoing. But they discover the ways they're connected when they come face to face with their deepest fears.

Using a method acquired in York University's Devised Theatre program, the concept of the show came to be. Each member was asked to bring in various forms of media centering around body image to create a collage. From there, the name of the show and general concept was created. The company continued to develop the show as a collective through improvisation and other forms of collaborative creation in rehearsal to generate content for the show.

Foodie and Bobo was collectively authored by Night Light Collective, an independent devised theatre company, founded by Chloe Currie, Jiafan 'Felix' Hao, Selena Otello and Madeleine Vogelaar. These founding members also authored the 2020 Digital Fringe experience, The Trying Times of Sister Bunny, with another devised collective, Alt-255 Collective. Jiafan Hao recently worked with CanStage as a performer in their 2021 production of nowhen.
