

THE SKY IS THE LIMIT THEATRE

The Sky is the Limit Theatre (TSLT) is an emerging collective-creation based theatre collective, led by peers Banafsheh and Sarah, that ruminates on questions of the human condition, and aims to tell the stories by, for and with people living in the margins.

SORT OF PRODUCTIONS

Sort of Production is a Tiohtià:ke/Montréal-based process-oriented feminist theatre collective co-founded by esi callender and oli vee. It centers artists whose lives are shaped by the intersections of oppression based on race (Black, Indigenous, racialized, and immigrant artists) and gender/sexuality (queer, trans, and women artists) building the content, form, and process behind our creations around our lived experiences and struggles for liberation.
