

CLIP SHOW - CREATOR BIO

Jon Blair has been a fixture in the Toronto sketch comedy community for over 15 years, known for his 5 years as cast member and 2 as head writer of Comedy Bar's flagship show Sunday Night Live with The Sketchersons, and for his extensive solo sketch work, previously seen all over Toronto as well as the Halifax and Edmonton Fringe Festivals, the Toronto, Montreal, New York and Philadelphia Sketch Comedy festivals, and Just for Laughs in Montreal.

He has been appearing in Fringe festivals since 2002; selected credits include Fantastic Extravagance (Steady State), Insatiable (Showing Pink), Fallsview To A Kill (Low-Fidelity) and The Resistance Improvised (Kicks & Giggles). He's written produced and starred in three one-man sketch revues, I'm Only One Man, Live From The Garbage and I Hope Nothing Bad Happens.

During the pandemic, Jon wrote and produced 5 episodes of Now More Than Ever, a half-hour solo sketch webseries filmed in his apartment, which won Best of the Fest at the Toronto Sketch Comedy Festival. He has written on 5 seasons of the CBC's This Hour Has 22 Minutes, and currently writes on CBC Radio's Because News with Gavin Crawford.
