

The Remainders

We are excited to bring you The Remainders- a powerful story set in a Toronto Public Library where lives collide, secrets surface, and voices fight to be heard.

A shared place where strangers connect, stories unfold, and ordinary becomes extraordinary.

Libraries hold more than books - they hold us.

Step inside. Be Seen. Be heard.

Nicole Fairbairn

Nicole plays local author Renee. She appeared on stage in the play Halfway There at Village Playhouse and had a teeny, tiny role in the new TV series, The Westies. During COVID, she moved to China and spent two years playing a wizard at Universal Beijing Resort. She's excited to be performing in her 8th Fringe production.

Garland Cabaret
Soulpepper Theatre
Distillery District

TORONTO
FRINGE
FESTIVAL

Aurora McClennan

Aurora plays rule-loving Librarian Natalie. Aurora is a multi-blah-blah who acts, writes and makes tea. Playwright of A Goat, A Ghost & A Guinness (or The Irish Pub Play). Recent acting credits: Blaithin (GGG, TKBB), Telephone Girl (Machinal, TFP).

Samuel Barnes

Samuel plays JJ. Samuel is a recent graduate of the University of Toronto's drama program. "I've only ever acted alongside people my age. With Remainders, that's about to change. It's a strange feeling, but one I'm grateful for."

Emer Kelly

Emer plays the Head Librarian. Emer is a Toronto-based actor who has enjoyed re-entering the acting scene in the last few years after a long hiatus. She's excited to be participating in the Fringe for the first time as an actor this year.

Jeya Nkrumah

Jeya, who plays Brie, is entering her fourth year at York University, majoring in the Acting Stream within the Theatre program. She is incredibly honoured that The Remainders marks her Toronto Fringe acting debut and is grateful to be part of such a meaningful and fun production.

Jason Pilgrim

Jason plays the Newcomer. Jason is a graduate of East 15 Acting School in the UK. The Remainders is Jason's second Toronto Fringe production, and he most recently appeared in a production of Antigone with Sunbeam Theatre

Christine Cortes

Christine is a Filipina-Canadian Actor, Director-Writer. Her projects have been awarded Best Screenplay (Cranes) and the Canada Council Arts Grant (Yellow). Part-time, she's an Assistant Director (Brilliant Minds, The Testaments, Law and Order Toronto). Christine enjoys painting, reading, working out, board/video games and travelling. The Remainders is Christine's theatre directing debut.

TORONTO

Jamie Johnson

Jamie plays Charles. Jamie is a writer, actor, and producer living in Toronto and a graduate of York University (BFA, MFA). Selected Fringe credits include: Uncle Wish in Dear Uncle Wish (Theatre Enthused), Leonato in Much Ado About Nothing (Shakespeare Bash'd), Captain NoBeard in Pirates Don't Babysit (Black Sea Theatre)

Rebecca Becket Grace

Rebecca, a local playwright and director, is excited to debut The Remainders at the Fringe. Her produced plays include the Fringe success Dead Talks, as well as Unboxed, Would You Do It Again, Testosterone, and To Each His Home. She's the founder of Roar in the Woods Theatre Company. She also works in the youth shelter system.

