

Get A Dog
Synopsis

On a sweltering summer day in Toronto, Marwa Sayed (Fatma Naguib), a wealthy, self-made woman, attends her first therapy session. She is immediately surprised to learn that despite her research, her therapist, Alex Agarwal (Andrew Pawarloo), is not the man she expected. They test each other, exploring both the price of having great wealth, and also the cure for a problem that has shaken Marwa to her core: the need to rekindle her passion for the love of her life, money.
