How hard could it be to make your passion project in Hollywood?

Us Against Everyone is a wild meta-theatrical farce with tons of heart, set in the high-stakes world of a Hollywood studio. Two former best friends try to reconnect as they bring their passion project to the screen. But they're up against A-list stars, last-minute script changes and worst of all each other.

The play included an intensive workshop process where every performer contributed heavily to the text. They are all co-creators in the final product, reflective of all the voices in the room and the power of heavy collaboration.

Us Against Everyone is directed by award-winner Nicole Wilson and stage managed by Julia Beaulieu. The co-creators / performers are Sebastian Biasucci, Grace Gordon, Diana Eremeeva, Lizzie Moffat and Hayden Finkelshtain.

Our promise is that it's as fast, funny and farcical as you can be while interrogating the nature of art and commerce in a capitalist system.
