

Terra Storyteller / Studio Brandstof

Terra Norihiro Terazawa assembled a special creative team for the 2021 Digital Toronto Fringe Festival. Key members' bios are the following:

Terra Norihiro Terazawa (Screenwriter & Storyteller) is an international storyteller and nature farmer currently based in Den Haag. He trained as an actor at the School of Speech and Drama (Kibbutz Harduf, Israel) and Michael Tschechow Studio (Berlin, Germany) and as a storyteller at The School of Storytelling (Forest Row, UK). He has performed in The Netherlands, South Africa, Germany, Switzerland, and the UK. Terra has been the director of DISC (Dutch International Storytelling Centre, Den Hague) from its founding in 2014.

Nick Gore (Director of Photography) is a video & photo production specialist based in Amsterdam. Coming from an agency background he has over 15 years of production experience and has been involved in numerous high-level campaigns across the planet. Over the past 5 years he has branched out into other creative fields and now has a plethora of music videos, social productions, museum exhibition videos and even short films under his belt.

Gary Condés (Creative Director) is a Theatre & Film Director, Acting Teacher & 121 Coach. He runs his own specialist, intensive actor training & coaching in London & across the UK & Europe. www.garycondes.com

Kaho Koda (Producer) is a Japanese theatre creator, writer, and producer. She is also the founder and artistic director of Human Burrito Productions. Originally from Tokyo, she studied and practiced theatre in Tokyo, Montreal, Toronto, and is currently based in Utrecht, The Netherlands. Her recent work includes "Decaying Tongue" as part of Toronto Fringe Festival (2019) and "The Human Connection Project" (2020). Her latest podcast show "Controversial Japan", which explores controversial opinions about the Japanese mindset, culture, and custom through stories and interviews, is available on Spotify and Apple Podcasts.