

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DK Reinemer presents Becoming Magic Mike: an Action Adventure Comedy at the 2019 Toronto Fringe Festival

"Fast-paced and immensely entertaining one-man show" - Orlando Sentinel.

Portland comedian DK Reinemer (Help! I'm American, The DK Effect) debuts at the Toronto Fringe with his smokin' hot, action adventure comedy. He's undercover, underdressed, and over the top. Can he pull it off?

Gleefully dumb and accidentally smart, DK sings, dances and rollerskates a preposterously skimpy plot about a strait-laced detective thrust deep undercover in the unfamiliar world of male stripping.

DK throws in the whole kit and caboodle of singing, dancing, sketch comedy, improv, dumb jokes, smart jokes, action and stripping.

Reviews and Awards:

"Best Comedy" Just For Laughs Award Nominee 2019

"Best of Fest" Ottawa Fringe Festival 2019

"Cool as a Cucumber Award" - Orlando Fringe 2018

"Outstanding Artist Award" - Calgary Fringe 2017

"Spirit of the Fringe Award" - Montreal Fringe 2017

BIO:

Born and raised by hippies in the Pacific Northwest , DK had no choice but to get into comedy. In 2004 he helped open the Upfront Theater with Ryan Stiles of "Whose Line is it Anyway?" and has since toured to "Becoming Magic Mike" is his fourth solo comedy show

DK recently started knitting, so that's been great! He currently lives in Portland, Oregon.

Venue: 8 : HELEN GARDINER PHELAN PLAYHOUSE (79A Saint George St)
