

Mixtape Projects is an unapologetically FUN music theatre company. We are located in Tkaronto, Ontario on the traditional territory of the Mississaugas of the Credit, the Anishinaabe, the Chippewa, the Haudenosaunee and the Wendat peoples.

We produce original works that are campy, earnest and hilarious and which always centre music. At the heart of everything we do is the belief that theatre should be FUN and that we should never apologize for creating art that is stupid and absurd if it delivers our central message and serves the enjoyment of our audiences. It's this belief that drives our process and allows us to unleash the full force of our strange and creative minds. Through passion projects like Killing Time and Iris (says goodbye) we have connected with an ever growing audience who are hungry for our unique brand of theatre. We are excited to keep delivering unusual and hilarious art to our city.
