About SIX TREES

As the trees are disappearing, elderly eco-activist Frances feels like she is disappearing too. This dance theatre piece puts an ancient tree stump at the centre of her journey, remembering and forgetting a love of the forest and a lifetime commitment to protecting it.

Run Time

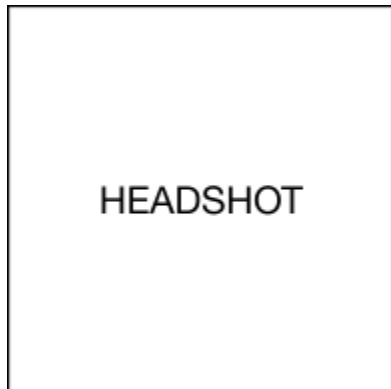

46 minutes with no intermission

Latecomers are welcome up to 5 minutes after start time.

Cast and Characters

Jody Terio plays the role of Frances, an elderly eco-activist and botanist who is remembering her past as she slowly forgets her present.

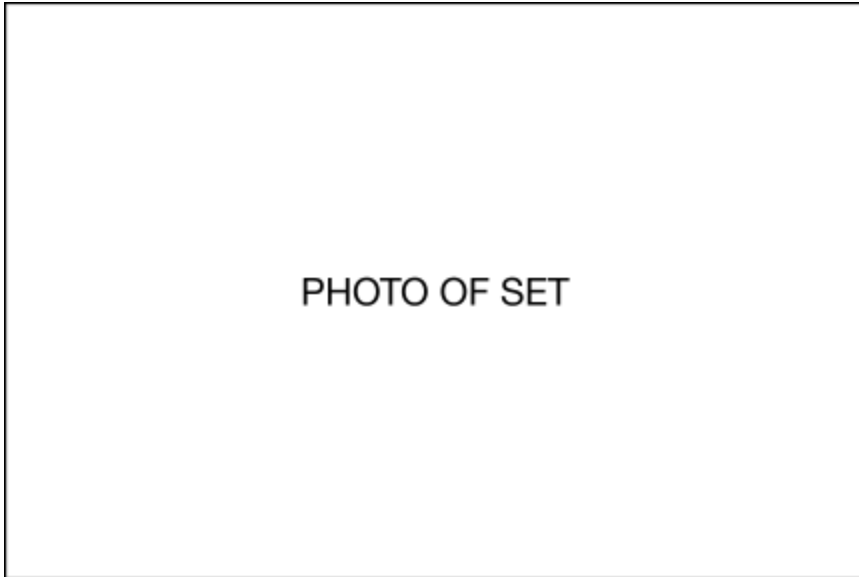

Emma Bradford-Wilson plays the role of Younger Frances who is an eco-activist and botanist.

O Hinton plays the role of PSW who works in the long term care home that Frances lives in. O also plays David, Frances' husband.

Set

The set has a tree, a bench and a stump. The show opens with a short shadow play of six trees.

Costumes

Frances and Young Frances wear green shirts and beige pants. PSW wears a smock and black pants and David wears a maroon shirt with black pants.
