

Synopsis

Space Hippo is a cinematic shadow show, using over two-hundred handmade puppets to create a live animated science fiction movie right before the audiences eyes. The story follows the adventure of a female Hippo who is sent into space in order to save the world from an environmental catastrophe. She travels through the cosmos with her robot companion, meeting different alien tribes and trying to get back to Earth to find her baby.