During the show

Synopsis

Two different worlds collide in a busy Regent Park cafe and the altercation is layered with troubling undercurrents.

When do you step into the middle of an unnerving situation? How do you know if what you think you saw is the truth? Every reality is skewed by the personal lens that we look through.

Come witness the event and see what side of the table you're on.

Lighting and sounds

There are some angry moments in the play so there is shouting and there will be one fight scene. There are no loud crashes or harsh lighting.

Movement of actors

The actors will move through the audience area during the show.

Relaxed performance

During our relaxed performance on Wednesday July 10th at 1 pm patrons are welcome to move around and make noise and/or take advantage of the quiet area at the front of the bistro.

Runtime for the show is about one hour.

Quiet Area

During our relaxed performance, audience members who prefer a quiet place to sit can choose the couch by the entrance to the bistro.
